Welcome Back!

It has been fantastic to welcome our children back to school this week and also to see a return to normal in so many of our school routines. A full and busy lunch hall, small-scale assemblies and freedom on the playgrounds have definitely been a highlight for me! Seeing our new Reception children coming for their visits and many of them having their first mornings at school is always such a privilege and we extend the warmest of welcomes to our new children and their families, be you new to our school or old-timers! All the children across school have been outstanding in their efforts this week and it has been an absolute joy to visit classrooms and see the buzz of learning taking place – we are so looking forward to another full and exciting year!

New School Values

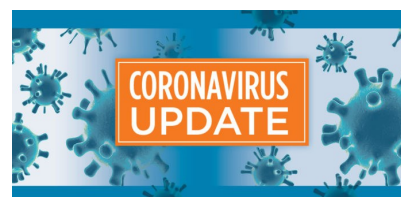

We worked with our staff, children and governors in the summer term to think about what was important to us as a school community and as a result have slightly amended our school values. Our values are now: Respect (our core value), Responsibility, Kindness, Courage, Perseverance, Honesty and Co-operation. We will be exploring these values with the children over the course of the year and thinking about how children can show them at school, at home and in the community.

COURAGE

The focus value for Term 1 is 'Courage' and we have already spent time with our children this week talking about how they can show courage at school – suggestions have included trying new things, making new friends, speaking out when we know something is wrong and owning up to our mistakes. Many of these things are mirrored at home and in the community but trying new things may be more varied (new foods, joining new clubs, going to new places etc) - standing up and doing the right thing despite peer pressure, being confident about what you believe in and challenging adversity are always ways in which courage can be shown. You can enforce our values by recognising when your child shows courage at home and talking with them about ways in which they can show courage.

COVID Updates

You should all have received an email earlier about our new COVID processes regarding positive cases – please take a moment to read this carefully so you understand what needs to be done in various situations – if in doubt, please just phone the office and we will help as best as we can.
